DAIQUIRI £8.50

This three-ingredient gift has pleased millions of palates over the ensuing years, including household names like Ernest Hemingway and President JFK. But in its purest form, the Daiquiri is simple and sublime, a delicate blend of rum's sweetness with the raw freshness of sugar and lime juice.

MOJITO £8.50

The Mojito is one of the most popular rum cocktails served today, with a recipe known around the world. The origins of this classic drink can be traced to Cuba and the 16th century cocktail El Draque. Rum, lime, mint and sugar are joined together and then lengthened with thirst-quenching club soda to create a delicious, lighthearted cocktail.

TOM COLLINS £8.50

The Tom Collins, a classic cocktail featuring 3 simple ingredients and topped with soda makes this refreshing drink taste like a spiked sparkling lemonade.

BRAMBLE £9.00

The Bramble is one of those cocktails that feels like a century-old classic. But the drink wasn't created until 1984, when Dick Bradsell (whose also created the Espresso Martini) mixed this modern-classic at Fred's Club in London's Soho neighborhood.

NEGRONI £9.50

Refreshingly bitter, the Negroni is said to have been invented in Florence by the dauntless Italian Count Camillo Negroni in the early 20th century. A pure Italian classic.

NUTELLA MARTINI £9.00

If you like your cocktails slightly sweeter but punchy, this one is for you! Try it with Frangelico to give a hazelnut twist or Baileys for a creamier option. Delicious either way!

COSMOPOLITAN £9.00

The legendary Cosmopolitan is a simple cocktail with a big history. For a good decade, the Cosmopolitan may have been the most popular cocktail in America, made even more infamous through the "Sex and the City" HBO TV show.

ESPRESSO MARTINI £9.00

An elegant and classy cocktail. If you're looking for a pick-me-up post-dinner, the Espresso Martini is here to jolt you awake with its boozy magical powers. Go on, you know you want to!

MARGARITA £9.00

The Margarita is one of the most popular cocktails — for good reason. Combining the tang of lime and the sweetness of orange liqueur with the distinctive strength of tequila, the classic Margarita strikes all of the right keys.
